

Verify Your Would-Be Sports Agent

A simple pre-signing checklist for families and student-athletes.

WHY THIS MATTERS

Louisiana regulates athlete agents through the Representing Athletes Act (La. R.S. 51:2500 et seq.). Before a family signs any agreement, someone claiming to represent an athlete should be registered, verifiable, and willing to put every term in writing.

WHAT'S INSIDE

- Confirm the person is a registered sports agent for your state, or an attorney in good standing
- Ask who licenses or registers them and how to verify it - then verify it yourself
- Get every scope, fee, and expense term in a signed written agreement
- Do not sign under time pressure or before conflicts of interest are disclosed
- An 'education, not representation' consultant should say so in writing and never hold themselves out as an agent
- Red flags: guaranteed outcomes, cash-upfront demands, or eligibility treated as an afterthought

ABOUT JAYLEN SINEGAL

Jaylen Sinegal is an executive brand strategist and media IP consultant in Louisiana. He teaches athlete and family brand architecture, NIL and music licensing to schools, and media copyright and facility audits. He is Chief Brand Officer of FlightTime Athletics LLC and builds the Find a Producer director for Louisiana music.

A STANDING PROMISE

Education, not representation. Jaylen Sinegal provides brand strategy, media education, and IP consulting. He is not a licensed sports agent and does not solicit, negotiate, or procure athletic contracts, sponsorships, or employment. He does not sell, license, or represent music. Families, schools, and buyers keep direct control of their own assets.

This resource is educational material meant to help you ask better questions. It is not legal, tax, financial, or investment advice, and it is not a contract. Louisiana law, platform terms, and school rules change. Confirm the current rules for your situation and have a qualified attorney review final documents whenever money, minors, or contracts are involved.

If this resource references an organization, platform, or law (including Louisiana Act 810 and La. R.S. 51:2500 et seq.), it is a plain-English overview, not the authoritative text. Read the actual statutes and terms before relying on any checklist.
